Students who have their practical in the second half can report at their practical time.
The first batch students can leave after their practical is over.
However, no bus facility would be available at 11.30 a.m.
Students have to make their own arrangement.
The dispersal of the students would be the responsibility of the respective class teachers.